JUNIOR LEAGUE OF WINSTON-SALEM SERVES AT HOSPICE GRIEF CAMP

Winston-Salem, NC – During the week of July 9, 2007 thirteen members of the Junior League of Winston-Salem served as volunteers at “Camp Carousel”, a grief camp offered through the Winston-Salem Forsyth County Hospice and Palliative Care Center designed to meet the unique needs of grieving children, teens, and adults who have lost a loved one. Through creativity, fun, and small group interactions, the specially trained staff of counselors and volunteers helped the participants learn the skills needed for facing their life changes.
