JUNIOR LEAGUE OF WINSTON-SALEM MEMBER SERVES ON STATE PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

Winston-Salem, NC – Junior League of Winston-Salem congratulates member Cornelia Groce on her election as Secretary of the Junior League of North Carolina State Public Affairs Committee. The Junior Leagues of North Carolina's State Public Affairs Committee, or SPAC, is the 501 (c) corporation formed to advocate on general civic and social welfare matters, to educate and to facilitate communications among its Affiliates and the public on these public issues, to provide advocacy training, and to advocate on behalf of its Affiliates on issues of general civic and social welfare at a state and national level.

Outside of the Junior League, Ms. Groce also serves on the NC Republican Party Executive Committee, acts as the president of the Forsyth County Republican Women, and serves on the Program Committee of the North Carolina Foundation of Republican Women.

"The Junior League of Winston-Salem is committed to the State Public Affairs Council and the impact that it will have on the issue of domestic violence. Moreover, the JLWS is extremely proud to have a member the caliber of Ms. Groce," said the JLWS President Allison Reaves.

The Junior League of Winston-Salem, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

With well over 1000 members, the Junior League of Winston-Salem has helped to inspire and to establish vital Winston-Salem- based community organizations and events, including the Arts Council, Children's Museum of Winston-Salem, Ronald McDonald House, SciWorks, Komen North Carolina Race for the Cure, and READ TO ME and BOOKMARKS Festivals. More information on the Junior League of Winston-Salem can be found at www.jlws.org.
