PARTNERING WITH THE COMMUNITY

Winston-Salem, NC – The Junior League of Winston-Salem searches for community partnerships for the 2008-09 Junior League year. On June 13, 2007 representatives from twenty-one community agencies met with the Junior League of Winston-Salem (JLWS) to learn about applying for Community Partnership. The community agencies that fit within the JLWS’s mission, vision, and focus areas were invited to complete this application prior to the September 1, 2007 deadline. In November 2007, recommendations will be made to the JLWS board of directors on which projects should be selected for the 2008-09 JLWS year (running June 2008-May 2009).

“This is an exciting process, as the JLWS assesses the community needs, discovers new collaborations and continues to build a better community,” said Allison Reaves, JLWS President.

The Junior League of Winston-Salem, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.

With well over 1000 members, the Junior League of Winston-Salem has helped to inspire and to establish vital Winston-Salem- based community organizations and events, including the Arts Council, Children's Museum of Winston-Salem, Ronald McDonald House, SciWorks, Komen North Carolina Race for the Cure, and READ TO ME and BOOKMARKS Festivals. More information on the Junior League of Winston-Salem can be found at www.jlws.org.
