

JUNIOR LEAGUE OF WINSTON-SALEM ANNOUNCES COMMUNITY IMPACT DAY

Winston-Salem, NC – On Saturday, August 2 from 12:00-3:00 pm, the Junior League of Winston-Salem (JLWS) will coordinate a Community Impact Day to highlight its commitment to nurture and educate individuals to build healthier families and a stronger community. JLWS Members will be on hand at Kimberley Park Water Spray and Playground to highlight the League programs which focus on childhood development and mentoring: Kids in the Kitchen, READ TO ME, and YouthWebZone.com.

"The Junior League of Winston-Salem is pleased to organize this project as a way for our members to communicate to our community's families about the exciting programs we offer throughout the year," said Pam Ball, JLWS president.

The Junior League of Winston-Salem, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers.
