New Board of Directors

Winston-Salem, NC – Whether a hospice nurse, a computer trainer, an MBA, a CPA, a promotions manager, or a stay-at-home mom, the new leaders of the Junior League of Winston-Salem, Inc. (JLWS) all have at least one thing in common - a passion for positively impacting their community. With a focus on "One League, One Mission," the JLWS announces its Board of Directors for 2007-08. The board, serving for the Junior League year running June 2007 through May 2008 includes: President Allison Reaves, President-Elect Pam Ball, Administrative VP Pam Davis, Community VP Roonie Craig, Communications VP Deirdre Ragan, Planning & Development VP Julie Williams, Finance VP Rebecca Boone, Finance Assistant VP Teresa Inman, Nominating Chair Heather Mackey, Membership VP Stacy Owen, Member at Large Paige Ballus, and Sustaining Member Angie Murphrey.

"For 85 years, the Junior League of Winston-Salem has been a catalyst for positive change in our community through the efforts of our well-trained volunteers" said incoming Junior League of Winston-Salem President Allison Reaves. "We are committed to further building partnerships within the community that will enable us to provide leadership, support and volunteers to those who share our vision of building healthier families and a stronger community."

The Junior League of Winston-Salem, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting volunteerism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. The Junior League of Winston-Salem has served the community since 1923 and involves over 1000 members who share a passion for volunteering. The JLWS has helped to inspire and to establish vital Winston-Salem- based community organizations and events, including the nation's first Arts Council, Children's Museum of Winston-Salem, Ronald McDonald House, SciWorks, Komen North Carolina Race for the Cure, and READ TO ME and BOOKMARKS Festivals.
